

TUESDAY 5 APRIL

CQRS & EVENT SOURCING

Let's code Twitter from scratch with CQRS & Event Sourcing with Emilien Pecoul and Florent Pellet

What if the complexity of a software was more about business than technology? With this live coding session, we'll show you a development method focused on business issues. No need for a specific programming languages or specific Framework.

Speakers

Emilien Pecoul. Another passionate developer since 7 years. Freelance in Lyon, currently working mostly with Microsoft Technologies. Trying to become a software craftsman, always striving to improve.

Florent Pellet. DDD Addict. Software craftsman freelance in Lyon. Co-leader of MUG Lyon and SoftwareCraftsmanship Lyon usergroups.
